

As part of the Free Library of Philadelphia's 2010 programming season, we have partnered with the Psychoanalytic center of Greater Philadelphia to bring you the following events:

Psychology of a Soldier :

A Conversation about Post Traumatic Stress Disorder

Tuesday, March 9, 7:00 p.m.

Free Library of Philadelphia, Parkway Central Library
Skyline Room, 4th floor, 1901 Vine St., 215-567-7710

Join Dr. Edna Foa from the Center of the Treatment and Study of Anxiety at the University of Pennsylvania and Dr. David Sachs and Ira Brenner, M.D., of the Psychoanalytic Center of Philadelphia in a conversation around the issues of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder as they pertain to Waltz with Bashir. Moderated by Susan Adelman, Ph.D., of the Psychoanalytic Center of Philadelphia. Part of the 2010 One Film program series featuring Ari Folman's Waltz with Bashir.

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Persepolis

Monday, March 15, 7:00 p.m.

Free Library of Philadelphia, Parkway Central Library,
Skyline Room, 1901 Vine St., 215-567-7710

Dr. David Sachs, a psychoanalyst, will discuss the emotional power of the comic book format; Dr. Hossein Etezady, a child psychoanalyst with a special interest in vulnerable children, will discuss Marjane Satrapi's developmental challenges from the perspective of a native Iranian who knows the culture well; and Dr. Salman Ahktar, a native of India who has written extensively about the special psychological conflicts confronting immigrants, will discuss Satrapi's challenges as an involuntary expatriate.

Part of the 2010 One Book, One Philadelphia program series featuring Marjane Satrapi's The Complete Persepolis.

